

Teachitright Online 1-1 Parent Meetings

The majority of our Online 1-1 Parent Meetings start from week beginning Monday 2nd December – many of you will have received an email this week with details and instructions on how to book your appointment slot on each tutor's allocated day. Some parents will be contacted next week, so please don't worry if you haven't been contacted yet! The 10-minute appointments will be carried out on Zoom (you will be emailed the link) and will give you the opportunity to discuss your child's progress with their tutor and ask any questions you may have. May we please ask that you make every effort to attend one of the allotted slots as, due to the organisation involved, we will be unable to commit to another appointment time.

Week 5 Assessments This Week - don't forget to bring your tokens!

A quick reminder that your child will be completing their Week 5 Assessment this week, from the lessons Saturday 23rd November onwards. Assessments will be completed during the sessions – if your child is unable to attend this week, we will email the assessment over to you. You will then be notified as soon as the assessment results are available to view on the Student Portal. Your child will also have the chance to spend their tokens this week on lots of exciting goodies!

Non – Verbal Reasoning Parent Workshop – Sunday 1st December, 4:00-6:00pm:

There's still time to sign up for our Non-Verbal Reasoning Parent Workshop – available FREE to all Teachitright parents. Our Parent Workshops are brilliant for anyone looking for some additional advice for continuing to support their child's 11+ preparation from home. The online session is run by our founder, Chris, and includes lots of helpful hints and tips for Non-Verbal Reasoning question types. We would love to see you there – if you would like to book a place, please use the following link:
